

Cultural District Walk Map April 12, 2008

1. Willard Arts Center – Carr Gallery

450 A Street
 10-4 pm The Works of Troy Adams, a Native American artist on display in the Carr Gallery
 11-1 pm Art Project for kids under 14
Eastern Idaho Children's Choir performing in the Carr Gallery 2:15-3:00
Colonial Theater "Rockapella" 8 pm, $27
 Don't miss America's top selling a capella group perform a delightful mix of rock, pop, soul and jazz.

2. Idaho Falls Symphony

450 A Street, 529-1080 12 – 3:30 pm
 The symphony will have four different musicians playing in the Carr Gallery of the Willard Arts Center.

3. Museum of Idaho

200 N. Eastern Ave, 522-1400 9 to 5 pm
World of the Pharaohs: An Egyptian exhibition that spans 3,000 years of dynastic history. Over 200 significant aspects of Egyptian art, funerary customs and daily life were selected to demonstrate the wealth and diversity of one of the world's great civilizations. This is a fabulous exhibit, more photography and descriptions of the principal items in the collection will be added to this site as time permits. Admission is $4 for 4-18 yrs., $6 adults, under 4 years free.

4. OE Bell Building/Bank of Idaho Gallery

151 N. Ridge, 528-3008 10-4 pm
 Roy Reynolds, The River Remembers on display in its permanent location at the Bank of Idaho Gallery.

5. Actors Repertory Theatre of Idaho

257 W. Broadway, 522-8450 2 to 4 pm
 Historic building tours hosted by members of Actors Repertory Theater.
Lie, Cheat, & Genuflect (Dinner Theater)
 Tickets $25 7 pm-The Buckle brothers are in big trouble. Tom's infallible eye for slow horses has drained away all of Billy's savings, and he has borrowed from loan shark Pizza Face Petrillo, who now wants his money back or else!

6. Destinations Inn

295 W. Broadway, 528-8444 11 to 4 pm
 Here's your chance to tour Idaho Falls most unique hotel with theme rooms from around the world!

7. Idaho Falls Public Library

457 Broadway, 529-1450 10 to 4 pm
 Come and enjoy a family reading event in our beautiful facility which is home to the gold fish pond, Sister City Japanese Garden and the sculpture of "Where the Red Fern Grows."

8. Eagle Rock Art Guild

287 Cliff St, 529-2555 10-4 pm
 Stop in and see the Eagle Rock Art Guild Spring Show in their new downtown location.

9. The Art Museum of Eastern Idaho

300 S. Capital, 524-7777 10 to 4 pm
 Stop by the museum and enjoy Making An Impression, The Anatomy of a Print. Printmaking demonstrations will be taking place.

10. Kingston Pioneer Art & Frame Building-Artist Market

460 Park Avenue, 522-0471 10-4 pm
 Numerous local artists will be displaying their work.

