Idaho Falls, ID, July 18, 2016:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to announce the 2016-2017 Mainstage Season at the Colonial Theater, as well as two special performances in the Carr Gallery.

The season is now in presales for IFAC Members, as well as anyone purchasing season tickets or multi-show packages. Single show tickets will be available after September 5th.

The Mainstage Season includes the following shows:

Oct 1 - Under the Streetlamp

Nov 11 - Letters Aloud – Fame (They're Not Going to Live Forever)

Nov 19 - Lukas Nelson and Promise of the Real

Dec 3 - The Nashville Tribute Band's Christmas

Jan 13 - The McCartney Years

Feb 24 - Tom Papa

Mar 2 - Michael Martin Murphey

Mar 17 - Menopause – The Musical

Mar 30 - The Young Irelanders

Apr 27 - Olé

"This season definitely has some shows unlike anything else you've seen before," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "It really demonstrates our dedication to presenting a broad spectrum of performing arts. There is a little something for everyone and we hope you will be willing to take a risk on some new experiences as well."

The Idaho Falls Arts Council will also be continuing the Living Voices series of historical humanitarian presentations in the Carr Gallery in the upcoming year with the titles Northwest Passages and Journey from the Dust.

The Mainstage Season is complimented by the Broadway at the Civic series, which brings thrilling, energy filled stage experiences to the community on a larger scale. The Broadway at the Civic Series includes Mamma Mia, Broadway Christmas Wonderland, Annie, and The Illusionists.
