Idaho Falls Arts Council presents Carols at the Colonial

Idaho Falls, ID, November 28, 2018:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present the first ever Carols at the Colonial, a free sing-along event for the whole family, on Sunday, December 16 from 5-6pm.

Join us for an evening sing-along of traditional Christmas carols and more modern favorites as well! We'll lead the music and provide the lyrics, we just need your voices to make the magic!

"Music is such a huge part of the holiday season and there is nothing more special than singing along with family, friends, and neighbors," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "I hope this event is able to become a tradition for our community, so that we can all feel the joy of music together."

No tickets required.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.
