Doktor Kaboom! It's JUST Rocket Science

Idaho Falls, ID, September 25, 2017:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Doktor Kaboom on October 14th at the Colonial Theater for a family matinee at 2:30pm.

Doktor Kaboom is back! A few years ago this quirky mad scientist taught you the Science of Santa, but now he is introducing families to It's JUST Rocket Science!

It's JUST Rocket Science combines high energy interactive comedy and an explosive lineup of science routines that focus on the scientific hurdles of space travel. The show is aimed primarily at grades 5-8, but will be entertaining for the whole family.

"Doktor Kaboom is an incredibly entertaining performer, but he also makes science fun and accessible for kids," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "My kids still talk about recreating the hovercraft Doktor Kaboom made on stage four years ago."

Tickets are only $12 and are available at the Idaho Falls Arts Council at 208-522-0471 or idahofallsarts.org.

Doktor Kaboom will also be performing two matinees for elementary schools.

Sponsored by Kimmon Richards and Doug Whatmore
