Carr Gallery Sessions: Heidi Burson

Idaho Falls, ID, September 27, 2018:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Heidi Burson as part of the Carr Gallery Sessions on October 12th at 7:30pm.

Bank of Idaho's Carr Gallery Sessions are an opportunity to see artists on the rise in the beautiful Carr Gallery at the Willard Arts Center.

Heidi Burson is a soul singer and pianist inspired by the likes of Aretha Franklin and Etta James. She combines these influences with her own experiences and wit, as well as her powerful voice to great effect. She will be accompanied by musicians on drums and upright bass.

"Heidi is such a great artist to kick off our second year of Carr Gallery Sessions," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "Artists like her really come to life in these intimate, club-like settings."

Tickets are $35 and include a drink voucher. Tickets are available at idahofallsarts.org or 208-522-0471
