

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Watercolor Society Exhibition

Idaho Falls, ID, August 25, 2016:

The annual exhibition of the Idaho Watercolor Society in the Carr Gallery will open with a reception on September 1st from 5-8pm, coinciding with Gallery Walk. Many featured artists will be in attendance for the opening reception. The exhibition will be on display from September 1 to October 30.

This exhibition includes a range of watercolor artworks created by artists living throughout Idaho, in addition to prize-winning pieces from the Idaho Watercolor Society's Annual Juried Membership Exhibition. The Annual Exhibition traveling show will be on view through September. In October, the exhibition will include a selection of works by this year's featured artist, Linda Pound.

"We are always excited to have this show return; it is one of our most popular exhibitions," said Georgina Goodlander, Visual Arts Director for the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "The Idaho Watercolor Society are really branching out into new avenues of watercolor, meaning that each year's exhibition is different and exciting."

The opening reception is sponsored by: KISU, FM-91, Your Ear to the World
The exhibition is sponsored by: LeRoy Knobel, Jeff and Ann Riedesel, and Stan and Lorena Murdock.

About the Idaho Falls Arts Council

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC is: To educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.

For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Amy Carr, Marketing Manager, at acarr@idahofallsarts.org or at 208-522-0471 x 108
For Immediate Release