Lukas Nelson and Promise of the Real

Idaho Falls, ID, October 13, 2016:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Lukas Nelson and Promise of the Real on November 19 at the Colonial Theater at 7:30pm.

Self-described as “Cowboy Hippie Surf Rock,” Nelson and his band have no shortage of style or experience. Lukas Nelson grew up around music with his father Willie Nelson and friends like classic rock legend Neil Young. Add those powerful influences to bluesy vocals and raw energy to create genre-bending music and an incredible concert experience.

“Lukas Nelson is a name I’ve been hearing passed around for a while,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “He’s performed in Jackson and surrounding areas, everyone comes back dedicated fans. It is not an experience to be missed.”

Tickets are $20-$35 and are available at the Idaho Falls Arts Council Box Office at 498 A St., 208-522-0471, or online at idahofallsarts.org.
