

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Falls Arts Council presents John McEuen

Idaho Falls, ID, January 16, 2019:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present John McEuen and the String Wizards on February 2nd at the Colonial Theater at 7:30pm.

A founding member of Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, McEuen reunites with fellow previous members and his son, Jonathan McEuen, to take the audience through the songs and stories of the iconic Will the Circle be Unbroken album. The evening also includes classic Nitty Gritty Dirt Band songs and some from McEuen's more recent albums.

"Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and this album in particular are iconic and a great example of uniquely American music," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "McEuen is an incredible musician, playing guitar, banjo, fiddle, and mandolin, and surrounds himself with other extreme talents."

Tickets are $25, $35, $40 and available at idahofallsarts.org or 208-522-0471

Season Sponsor: Fluor Idaho

Sponsored by: Jerry and Carrie Scheid, The Hartwell Corporation, MarCellar's Vintage Wines and Brews, Park and Sharon Price

John McEuen is available for phone interviews. Please contact Amy Carr at acarr@idahofallsarts.org if you are interested in scheduling one.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.

For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Amy Carr, Marketing Manager, at acarr@idahofallsarts.org or at 208-522-0471