

PRESS RELEASE

Michelle Branch

Idaho Falls, ID, August 15, 2017:

Grammy Award-winning artist Michelle Branch is coming to the Colonial Theater on September 15, 2017 at 7:30pm.

Branch is known for several hits from the early 2000s, like “Everywhere” and “All I Wanted,” as well as collaborations with Santana and as half of the country duo The Wreckers. She just released her first solo album in over a decade, Hopeless Romantic, produced by Patrick Carney of the Black Keys.

With a broad appeal, across both ages and genres, this is not a show to miss.

“Michelle Branch is one of those, that even if you don’t know her name, you can sing along with all of her songs,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council.

Tickets are $30 and $35 and are available through the Idaho Falls Arts Council at idahofallsarts.org, 208-522-0471, or at 498 A Street in downtown Idaho Falls.

Sponsored by Fluor Idaho and Star 98
