Idaho Falls Arts Council presents Molly Tuttle

Idaho Falls, ID, February 12, 2019:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Molly Tuttle on February 28th at the Colonial Theater at 7:30pm.

Molly Tuttle is an award-winning guitarist with a gift for insightful songwriting. Crowned “Instrumentalist of the Year” at the 2018 Americana Music Awards, Tuttle has broken boundaries and garnered the respect of her peers, winning fans for her incredible flatpicking guitar technique and confessional songwriting. Graced with a clear, true voice and a keen melodic sense, the 25-year-old seems poised for a long and exciting career. Her new album, When You’re Ready, showcases her astonishing range and versatility and shows that she is more than simply an Americana artist.

“Molly is the type of artist whose talent is evident as soon as she begins to play,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “She is definitely one to watch and we are thrilled to bring her and her band to Idaho Falls.”

Tickets are $20-35 and are available at the Idaho Falls Arts Council box office at 498 A Street, Idaho Falls or 208-522-0471 or idahofallsarts.org

Season Sponsor: Fluor Idaho

Show Sponsors: Carol Ormond, Steve and Jackie Larsen, Mountain View Hospital

Tuttle and her band will also be performing a matinee for students.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.
