

PRESS RELEASE

One Night in Memphis

Idaho Falls, ID, September 1, 2017:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present One Night in Memphis at the Colonial Theater on September 29th at 7:30pm.

One Night in Memphis recreates the night in 1956 that Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Carl Perkins got together and jammed while recording at Sun Records. Enjoy music you love performed by incredible musicians for a night you won't forget.

"Nostalgia is a very powerful thing, and nothing evokes that feeling more than music," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "We love to kick our season off with a show that pulls on that deeper connection to people, and a time, and memories."

Tickets are $30, $40, $45 and are available through the Idaho Falls Arts Council at idahofallsarts.org, 208-522-0471, or at 498 A Street in downtown Idaho Falls.

Season Sponsors: Fluor Idaho, Mountain View Hospital

Sponsored by The Hartwell Corporation, Idaho National Laboratory on behalf of corporate funds from Battelle Energy Alliance, Park and Sharon Price, Mike and Kathy Simpson
