Idaho Falls Arts Council presents Richard Marx

Idaho Falls, ID, October 3, 2018:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Richard Marx on October 19th at 7:30pm at the Colonial Theater.

Richard Marx is a multi-platinum performer, songwriter, and producer with number one hits in each of the last four decades and has sold over 30 million albums worldwide. His hits include “Right Here Waiting”, “Now and Forever”, and “Don’t Mean Nothing”.

Marx will take you through his hits and those you may not know he wrote like Josh Groban’s “To Where You Are”, NSYNC’s “This I Promise You”, and Keith Urban’s “Long Hot Summer” in an incredible solo performance.

“Not everyone can carry the stage alone, but Richard Marx absolutely can,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “His songs were on every mixtape I had as a teenager and I know they were just as influential to a lot of other people.”

Season Sponsor: Fluor Idaho

Show Sponsors: Jim and Deb Lively, Danny and Elaine Gray, Mary Lynn Hartwell, Mike and Kathy Simpson, Eagle Rock Indian Motorcycle.

Tickets are $35-50. Tickets are available at idahofallsarts.org or 208-522-0471
