The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Under the Streetlamp – Hip to the Holidays on November 30th at the Colonial Theater at 7:30pm.

Under the Streetlamp was founded by former cast members of Jersey Boys on Broadway. The members embrace the music, harmonies, and slick suits of the Jersey Boys era with hits from the 50s, 60s, and 70s. In their Hip to the Holidays show, they add in some classic holiday hits.

“We are excited to bring the boys of Under the Streetlamp back,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “I grew up listening to this music with my parents and love their wicked dance moves.
