

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Falls Arts Council Presents The Sweet Remains

Idaho Falls, ID, January 25, 2019:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present The Sweet Remains as part of Bank of Idaho's Carr Gallery Sessions on February 7th at 7:30pm.

The Sweet Remains is a true grassroots folk band made up of three singer-songwriters. The combined harmonies of Rich Price, Greg Naughton, and Brian Chartrand are breathtaking. Their lyrical songwriting appeals to fans of Ray Lamontagne, John Mayer, Jason Mraz, Simon and Garfunkel, and more.

The Carr Gallery Sessions are intimate performances by up and coming artists in the beautiful Carr Gallery. Join friends around a table or find a spot to dance the night away, each Carr Gallery Session takes on the unique style of the band. Ticket price includes a drink voucher.

"I had the opportunity to see The Sweet Remains a couple years ago, and although their performance there was brief, they stood out as talents to watch," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "They sang an a cappella rendition of "Blackbird" that stayed with me all week."

Tickets are $35 and include a drink voucher. Tickets are available at the IFAC Box Office, 208-522-0471, or idahofallsarts.org.

Carr Gallery Sessions are sponsored by the Bank of Idaho.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.

For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Amy Carr, Marketing Manager, at acarr@idahofallsarts.org or at 208-522-0471