

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Falls Arts Council presents: The Hunts

Idaho Falls, ID, February 16, 2016:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present The Hunts on March 11th at 7:30pm at the Colonial Theater.

The Hunts are a Virginia based band made up of seven brothers and sisters ranging in age from 16 to 24, who all learned to sing and play the violin before branching out to other instruments like mandolin, piano, ukulele, banjo, and drums. With a home-grown take on music and songwriting, The Hunts create alt-folk music that embodies the complex emotions and innocence of youth.

“We had The Hunts at the Colonial a couple years ago, and I don’t know if I’ve ever seen so many CDs purchased after a show, as I did that night,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “I am so excited to have them back and to be able to share them with the audience that loved them and a whole new crowd too.”

Tickets are $30, $35 and are available at idahofallsarts.org, 522-0471, or in the IFAC box office at 498 A St.

The Hunts are currently wrapping up a tour as the supporting artist for the band O.A.R. before they arrive in Idaho Falls.

About the Idaho Falls Arts Council

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: The Colonial Theater, ARTitorium on Broadway, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, along with other art organizations, is: To educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.

For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Amy Carr, Marketing Manager, at acarr@idahofallsarts.org or at 208-522-0471 x 108

For Immediate Release