Idaho Falls Arts Council presents Saturday Night Fever

Idaho Falls, ID, March 10, 2016:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Saturday Night Fever on April 7th at 7:30pm at the Colonial Theater.

This Broadway-quality musical version of the iconic 70s movie takes you back in time to when disco was king. Follow Tony as he balances his dead-end job and fighting family with his love of dancing. Filled with the biggest disco hits by bands like the Bee Gees, this is the ultimate nostalgic performance, or a perfect way to introduce the story to younger generations.

“We laugh now about the white suit and the dance moves, but disco lives huge in the collective memory of pop culture,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “We all know the songs and the moves and this show gives us a chance to make the classic new again.”

Tickets are $45 and $50 and are available from the Idaho Falls Arts Council in the box office at 498 A St., Idaho Falls, by phone at 208-522-0471, or online idahofallsarts.org.
