

PRESS RELEASE

Tales of the Season with Teresa Clark

Idaho Falls, ID, December 8, 2016:

ARTitorium on Broadway is pleased to present Tales of the Season with Teresa Clark on December 17th at 12 and 3pm at the MC Theater in ARTitorium.

Teresa Clark is a national award-winning storyteller and teaching artist who passionately wields story to turn and heal hearts. She is a storyteller, teacher, published author, and research historian. In these presentations, Teresa will tell stories of Christmas and the holiday season, including many families may not be familiar with. She encourages families to share this experience together and to create a new holiday tradition.

“Part of ARTitorium's vision is to help children and families interact with art in a new and different way,” said Georgina Goodlander, Visual Arts Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “Unfortunately, true storytelling is a rare talent in modern times and we are thrilled to have this opportunity to share Teresa Clark with families at ARTitorium.”

Tickets are $3 and include admission to ARTitorium as well. It is encouraged to reserve spaces in advance at 208-552-1080 or artitoriumonbroadway.org.
