Idaho Falls Arts Council presents: Flashdance – The Musical

Idaho Falls, ID, December 30, 2015:

Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Flashdance – The Musical at the Colonial Theater on January 20th at 7:30pm.

Based on the iconic 80s movie, Flashdance follows the story of Alex, a young steel mill worker, as she chases her dreams of becoming a professional dancer. Songs like “What a Feeling” and “Maniac”, as well as original songs, soundtrack her journey through romance and pursuit of her dreams.

“Broadway and nostalgia are the two most popular things we present in the theater, and this show encompasses both completely,” said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “People who may have seen the original film here can relive it in a totally new way.”

Tickets are available through the Idaho Falls Arts Council at the box office at 498 A St. in downtown Idaho Falls, by phone at 208-522-0471, or online at idahofallsarts.org. Tickets begin at $33.75, with standard prices at $45 and $50.
