

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Falls Arts Council presents Nashville Tribute Band's Christmas

Idaho Falls, ID, November 17, 2016:

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is pleased to present Nashville Tribute Band's Christmas on December 3rd at the Colonial Theater at 7:30pm.

Nashville Tribute Band is an ever-changing line up of talented musicians and artists assembled by award-winning songwriter and producer Jason Deere, whose passion project is writing spiritual country songs. Their newest album, Merry, is their first Christmas album and includes their take on classic holiday songs as well as originals.

"We usually try not to present holiday shows because our community already has so many wonderful shows and events that time of year," said Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, "But this show was such an incredible opportunity for our patrons that we couldn't say no."

Tickets are $15 - $30 and are available at the Idaho Falls Arts Council at 498 A St., 208-522-0471, or idahofallsarts.org, but the show is already getting close to sold out, so act fast.

About the Idaho Falls Arts Council

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC is: To educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.

For questions regarding information contained in this release, please contact Amy Carr, Marketing Manager, at acarr@idahofallsarts.org or at 208-522-0471 x 108
For Immediate Release