

PRESS RELEASE

17th Annual National Juried Exhibition

March 20, 2025 | 5:30-7:30 PM | Willard Arts Center

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is excited to announce a gallery opening reception for the 17th Annual National Juried Exhibition. The Opening Reception and Awards Presentation will be held at the Willard Arts Center on March 20th from 5:30-7:30. This event is free to the public and everyone is welcome to come view this amazing exhibit.

The Idaho Falls National Exhibition is an annual juried exhibition by the Idaho Falls Arts Council and exhibited at the Willard Arts Center. Artists working in all mediums throughout the United States are invited to submit. This is an open show with no geographic boundaries.

"The Juried Exhibition provides a great opportunity to see what contemporary artists across America are working on today," says Georgina Goodlander, Visual Arts Director for the Idaho Falls Arts Council. "There are always weird and wonderful pieces included in this show, and this year will be no exception. I look forward to meeting some of the artists and chatting with our patrons about the display. This exhibition might challenge your idea of what Art is, and at the very least, should inspire some interesting conversations."

The 17th Annual National Juried Exhibition will be displayed in the Carr and Hall Galleries from March 20th – June 1st. This exhibit is free to the public and open during office hours.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.
