

PRESS RELEASE

Gallery Opening Reception

January 16, 2025 | 7:30 PM | Willard Arts Center

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is excited to announce a gallery opening reception for Mike Rainey and Natalie Behring. The Opening Reception will be held at the Willard Arts Center on January 16th. This event is free to the public and everyone is welcome to come view these amazing exhibits. Exhibits are open to the public during office hours.

- Mike Rainey: Investigation – Mike Rainey's photographs were made in and around his home. They reflect a quiet rural life. Mike has worked his way through the traditional photography genres: document, landscape, portrait, mixed media, conceptual, still life, and has done so with varying attitudes about his subject matter: curiosity, excitement, respect, joy, irony, tenderness, sometimes ignorance.

- Natalie Behring: Idaho Redneck – Natalie Behring became a photographer by lucky accident in China in 1996. Natalie has worked for newswires, global newspapers, non-profits, and mega-corporations. Recently, Natalie has become an enthusiastic trail camera user – combining her love for walking, nature and photography. Natalie is based in Victor, Idaho and is positioned to cover news and features throughout Idaho, Wyoming and the great Yellowstone ecosystem.

The Mike Rainey: Investigations Exhibit will be displayed in the Carr Gallery from January 16th-March 16th.

The Natalie Behring: Idaho Redneck Exhibit will be displayed in the Hall Gallery from January 6th-March 16th.

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.
