Kate the Chemist brings explosive science to the Colonial Theater!

Get ready for a science experiment that is anything but ordinary when Kate the Chemist takes the stage at the Colonial Theater on Friday, October 23rd at 7:00 PM

Globally recognized as Dr. Kate Biberdorf, "Kate the Chemist," the University of Notre Dame professor and science entertainer has made a career out of proving that science can be fascinating, fun, and sometimes even explosive. Known for her energetic demonstrations featuring fire, ice, and explosions, Dr. Biberdorf brings chemistry to life in a way that captivates audiences of all ages.

With her infectious enthusiasm and hands-on approach to science, Kate encourages audiences to look at the world around them with curiosity. Her performances combine education and entertainment, transforming complex scientific concepts into exciting, memorable experiences that leave audiences eager to learn more.

Whether you're fascinated by chemistry or simply curious about what happens when science gets turned up to eleven, Kate the Chemist promises an unforgettable experience filled with discovery, laughter, and plenty of "Whoa!" moments.
