

PRESS RELEASE

Idaho Falls Art Walk

The Idaho Falls Art Walk is an opportunity to visit local galleries and museums at no cost on the first Thursdays of the month May through October from 5-8 PM

Art Walk has become a local tradition that embraces Idaho Falls' thriving art community and perfect summer weather. Take this opportunity to visit seven different locations, some of which offer artist demonstrations and refreshments.

This year's featured locations are:

- Willowtree Gallery – 210 Cliff St.
- ARTitorium on Broadway – 271 W Broadway St.
- Spare Room Press – 260 B St.
- The Handmade Idaho Shop – 430 Park Ave.
- WAC Artist Studios – 496 A St.
- Willard Arts Center – 450 A St.
- The Art Museum of Eastern Idaho – 300 S Capital Ave.

The name change from Gallery Walk to Art Walk reflects a broader approach to showcasing and celebrating all forms of art in a community. While galleries traditionally focus on exhibiting fine art in a curated setting, an 'art walk' suggests a more inclusive and accessible event that invites people to explore and engage with a variety of art forms. In addition to the locations listed above, participants are encouraged to explore the murals, traffic cabinet artwork, and art benches that can also be found downtown.

The 2023 Art Walk will take place on May 4, June 1, July 6, August 3, September 7, and October 5.
