Celebrate Ameri'kana

April 18, 2025 | 7:30 PM | Colonial Theater

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is thrilled to present an unforgettable evening of music and culture with Celebrate Ameri'kana, featuring the genre-bending sounds of Making Movies and the Grammy Award-winning Los Texmaniacs. Join us on April 18th where these powerhouse bands will take audiences on a journey through the diverse roots of American Music.

Making Movies is renowned for its fusion of Latin rhythms, rock, and psychedelic influences. Hailed by Rolling Stone as a band that “makes fusion sound seamless,” the Kansas City-based group explores themes of immigration, love, and identity with an electrifying, high-energy performance that leaves audiences captivated.

Los Texmaniacs, led by Max Baca, bring the heart and soul of conjunto music to the stage, blending Mexican folk with elements of rock, blues, and R&B. Their authentic yet innovative sound earned them a Grammy for Best Tejano Album, and their performances celebrate the rich heritage of Tex-Mex culture.

“Celebrate Ameri'kana is more than just a concert,” says Brandi Newton, Executive Director of the Idaho Falls Arts Council, “It’s a celebration of America’s diverse music and culture. Making Movies and Los Texmaniacs blend tradition with fresh energy.”

Celebrate Ameri'kana tickets are on sale now and are available on our website: idahofallsarts.org, or at our ticket office: 498 A Street, Idaho Falls, ID 83402
