

PRESS RELEASE

19th Annual Roaring Youth Jam Event

August 7, 8, & 9, 2025

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is proud to announce the 19th Annual Roaring Youth Jam with the theme: Weather Wonders. Activities are from 10am until 4pm each day.

The Roaring Youth Jam is a fun-filled art festival along the Idaho Falls River Walk. The three-day festival includes art tents and community activities along the east side of the Idaho Falls River Walk where kids (and adults!) can get creative with paint and crafts. There are performances by local acts throughout each day. All activities and events are free!

"We're excited to explore the theme of weather this year, and the projects are going to be extra messy with hurricane spin art, earthquake marble painting, paintsicles, and so much more!" says Visual Arts Director Georgina Goodlander "In addition, we're bringing back the fabulous stilt walkers Leyla and Paris Le La Cheur, who will be doing a special sway pole performance on Friday as well as stilt walking on Saturday. There's just so much to do and see this year, you're going to want to come back every day!"

The Idaho Falls Arts Council is a private nonprofit organization which owns and operates: ARTitorium on Broadway, The Colonial Theater, and the Willard Arts Center. The mission of IFAC, in cooperation with other arts organizations, is to educate our community and enrich its quality of life by promoting, advocating, and presenting a broad spectrum of visual and performing arts in eastern Idaho.
